

Nominations for "the Peace Prize from Slovakia" as of 3. July 2015 are:

- 1. The President of the People's Republic of China, Honorable You Jin-Pching*
For continuous improvement of quality of living conditions in the People's Republic of China and for his international contribution and cooperation in social progress among nations
- 2. The President of the International Court of Justice in the Hague, JUDr. Peter Tomka (2012-2015)*
For strengthening of the authority of the UNITED NATIONS by implementing the judicial justice and for efforts in improving relations between countries and nations
- 3. RIKE Brain Research Institute, Japan*
For research of the brain and for innovative approach and applications of methods in reducing negative impacts and consequences of economic globalization on countries' economies
- 4. The President of the Russian Federation Vladimir v. Putin*
For efforts in balancing the military strength of the major powers and for contributions in reducing global and regional tensions and confrontations
- 5. Ennio Morricone, Italian composer, musician and conductor*
For his positive impact on human soul in his music contributing to world peace
- 6. Raúl Castro, President of the Cuban Republic*
For his efforts in implementing ideas of John Paul II., " Let Cuba open to the world and allow the world to open to Cuba "and for his contributions in improving relations with the United States
- 7. Prof. Klaus Schwab, founder of the World Economic Forum, Switzerland*

For strengthening and activating its civilization skills in all areas of human activity on global priorities .

8. Pope Francis

For initiatives to address the civilizational, economic and social problems in specific regions and countries, as well as peacekeeping and humanitarian development dialogues among nations